It is said that more women voted at the last Presidential election than ever before, and they voted wrong, too.

The Rev. Charles Sheldon says a Christian can't dance. We have seen lots of them who couldn't dance any better than a hippopotamus.

The Suez Canal is to be deepened and broadened to let bigger ships through and an American engineer has been given the job of seeing it done right.

Somebody is making money out of the railroads in Texas. The last fiscal year ending June 30th they paid $1,018,637, in damages for personal injuries.

Having disposed of one of her State capitals, the "Summer capital" at Newport, Rhode Island feels that she can afford to raise the pay of her Solons to $10 a day.

Gen. Otis says it will not be necessary to send more troops to the Philippines. Of course not. Didn't the General assure us twelve months ago that the insurrection had pegged out?

The German Government pays $528 a ton for armor plate, which is more than this Government pays, The probabilities are that Herr Krupp has a pull on the German Government.

Some of the Republican organs still ask "What Will Bryan Do?" Why, Bryan will go right along attending to his own business, eating three meals a day, sleeping as soundly as a plow boy, and not bothering his head about the Republican editors.

There is nothing like a good hearty laugh, but there should be moderation even in hilarity. Mrs. Sharp, of New York, paid the penalty for forgetting this when she laughed so hard that she dislocated her under jaw and it took the doctors a couple hours to prize it back into place.

Noah Raby, originally of Edenton, N. C., but for the past hundred years or more a denizen of New Jersey, forty years or more havnig been spent in a poor house, has again celebrated his 128th birthday. According to our recollection he has been doing this for several years. Noah says he managed to scuffle along pretty well until he reached the age of ninety years, when he had to retire from business.

LOCAL DOTS.

— A marriage license was granted yesterday to Mr. Benj. Franklin King and Miss Mary Wallace, both of Delgado village.

— The political meeting for the promotion of candidates for local offices was not held last night as was appointed in the Fifth Ward.

CRIMINAL MATTERS.

Eastern District Court Resumed Its Daily Routine Yesterday Morning.

THE TWO MURDER CASES.

Morgan Spencer Submitted to Manslaughter and Motion for Continuance in Jim Well's Case—The Door Mat Thief.

The Eastern District Criminal Court resumed its daily routine yesterday morning at 9.30 o'clock and was continuously in session until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, with the exception of a recess for dinner from 1 to 2 30 o'clock P. M.

During the day the most important item of the court's business was the hearing of a motion from Herbert McClammy and Marsden Bellamy, Esqs., counsel for Jim Wells, colored, charged with murder, to continue the case until next term. While Solicitor Duffy said that he would not antagonize the motion just yet, if at all, he desired that the motion be left open for a few days further. Judge Moore concurred in the Solicitor's suggestion and the matter will come up again, perhaps to day.

The case of Morgan Spencer, for alleged carelessness in shooting and killing an associate at Wrightsville Sound, was changed from one charging murder to one specifying manslaughter and under the circumstances the defendant was released upon payment of a fine of $5 and costs.

The door mat and jardeniere thief furnished amusement for court attendants at the closing hour of the day's session. He stood up at the command of Solicitor Duffy and plead guilty to seven separate and distinct charges of larceny as they were read to him by the court. There were over twenty other similar charges, but he was brought into court only on seven. He confessed to already having served a term of twelve months in the penitentiary and after a good sound lecture by Judge Moore he was given three years more on three of the cases and in the other four, judgment was suspended. Owners of the stolen property now in custody of the court can obtain same by applying to the sheriff and identifying the same. The negro thief is named Andrew Hill.

Jim Marine, a young white boy, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for highway robbery.

The following proceedings were had during the day.

K. D. Nixon, false pretence, juror withdrawn and mistrial ordered.

Jno. Payne, submitted to carrying concealed weapons and judgment suspended on payment of cost.

James Marine, larceny; guilty and defendant sentenced to two years imprisonment at hard labor in the State penitentiary.

Joseph McGuire, injury to property; submitted and defendant fined $5 and costs.

Lewis Wilkinson, larceny by trick, submitted; sentenced to twelve months on public roads.

Solomon Loivrey, a. b. d. w. submitted; defendant fined $5 and costs

Lewis Lavender, larceny, sentenced to twelve months on public roads.

George Roderick, failure to pay costs; four months on public roads.

Morgan Spencer, murder, plead not guilty of murder and the felony as charged in the bill of indictment, but guilty of manslaughter; plea sustained and defendant fined $5 and costs.

Millie Everett, indecent exposure of person; not guilty.

F. P. Sykes, failure to pay tax as horse dealer; not guilty.

Carrie Stewart, Kate Fisher, Sis Lucas, nuisance; not guilty as to Stewart and Lucas, defendant Fisher sentenced to six months on public roads.

Carrie Stewart, a. and b. d. w.; not guilty.

Carrie Stewart, Kate Fisher, Sis Lucas, affray; judgment suspended.

Andrew Hill, plead guilty to larceny in seven cases; sentenced to one year in each of three cases and judgment suspended in each of the other four.

The grand jury came into court and returned the following true bills: Andrew Hill, four cases for larceny; Chas. Monroe, larceny; Carrie Stewart, a. and b. d. w.; Louis Lavender, larceny; Kate Bradley, a. and b. d. w.; Ed. Smith, injury to property, not a true bill, and a true bill against James Walker for larceny.

The following talesmen were ordered summoned for service to-day: Thos. Lossen, W. B. Cooper, W. J. Kirkham, J. H. Burriss, W. P. Dickerson, H. C. Rancke, W. B. Tompkins, C. C. Brown, Jacob Friedman, Ed. Ahrens, W. P. Gafford, Joseph Britt, J. E. Morris, J. W. Murchison, J. C. Slocum, L. Tate Bowden, S. D. Strickland, B. Kelley, H. Cronenberg and Stephen Jewett.

The court took a recess at 5 o'clock until this morning at 9.30 o'clock.

Thus far there have been seven commitments to the county chain gang, and these will be sent out to the stockade to-day by Jailor Millis.

Benefit Entertainment.

The sociable yesterday afternoon and evening at Mrs. H. W. Konig's residence, 915 North Fourh street, for the benefit of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, was well attended and successful in every respect. Refreshments were served and a musical programme was admirably carried out.

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure prompt and regular delivery.

DIVINE HEALERS HERE.

Dr. Gilbert, of London, Eng., and Rev. Mr. Skinner, of Columbus, Ga., Will Begin a Meeting.

Dr. W. S. Gilbert, of London, Eng., and Rev. Ottis M. Sutton, apostles of the divine healing persuasion, arrived in the city last evening and will begin to-day a ten days meeting in the city, preaching daily at corner of Front and Market streets at 10:30 A. M., 3:30 and 7:30 P. M. They claim that through divine inspiration they are able to cure diseases of the flesh simply by the laying on of hands and will give daily illustrations of their work for which there will be no charge, a collection only being taken at each service.

They have just concluded ten day's meetings at Raleigh and Durham and have very substantial press notices from the papers of these cities. They have also held meetings in several of the larger cities in Virginia and at Columbia, S. C.

Dr. Gilbert claims that he is an orthodox Episcopalian and Rev. Mr. Sutton that he is a Baptist and pastor of the Union Tabernacle, at Columbus, Ga. They are guests at the Bonitz House, and will be glad to confer with any one interested in their belief.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAME.

Wilmington Team Making Great Preparations to Meet Wilson Next Week.

The Wilmington foot ball team which will meet the Wilson eleven on Thanksgiving Day at Hilton Park, are rapidly getting into shape for the game under the coaching of Messrs. Hatch and Sinclair. They are nightly practicing at the O. A. N. grounds and from the enthusiasm displayed by the boys a great game may be expected.

Wilson is regarded as a "hard proposition" by the coaches and Wilmington will have to play ball to win.

Many members of the old team are at their regular places, but there are positions yet to be filled and all applicants for places on the team are requested to report at the O. A. N. grounds at 8:15 o'clock any night this week.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY.

New York Journal of Sunday Has Complimentary Reference to Miss Meares.

The New York Journal of Sunday in giving a review of the work of the seventh annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, recently held in Montgomery, Ala., the first capital of the Southern States, has this pleasant and complimentary reference to Miss Mary F. Meares, of this city:

"The corresponding secretary, Miss Mary F. Meares, of Wilmington, N. C., is the youngest woman who has held a national office in the U. D. C Her father entered the army at sixteen and was seventeen when the war closed. He was a courier on the staff of General Bradley T. Johnson, and afterwards on General Wade Hampton's staff.

MARRIED IN SAVANNAH.

Miss Ella McKenzie Becomes Bride of Mr. M. M. Parker, of Wilmington.

At the residence of Mrs. Kenneth McKenzie, in Savannah, Ga., last evening at 8.30 o'clock, her daughter, Miss Ella McKenzie, was happily wedded to Mr. M. M. Parker, a well known employe of the Atlantic Coast Line shops in this city.

Mr. Parker left on the pleasant mission of his life Tuesday afternoon and expected to leave with his bride for Wilmington last night. A reception in honor of the couple will be given Friday evening at the home of Mr. W. K. Bell, No. 610 South Fifth street, where Mr. and Mrs. Parker will reside in the future.

Carolina vs. Virginia.

Many Wilmingtonians are much interested in the approaching game of foot ball between the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia in Norfolk next Saturday, the 24th inst., and already a number of people have signified their intention of witnessing the game. Both teams are in excellent condition and the contest will no doubt be close and exciting. The Atlantic Coast Line offers a rate of $8.80 for the round trip from Wilmington, and indications point to a large delegation of North Carolinians being in Norfolk to witness the big match game.

Telephone Possibilities.

The Fayetteville Observer is informed of a telephone project in contemplation which will connect Wilmington with Fayetteville, the line continuing on by way of Raleigh and Durham to Charlotte and, connecting with the long distance lines to the North and West. Mr. John Paul Smith of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, is the Observer's informant.

Capt. James D. McNeill Sick.

The many friends throughout the State of Capt. James D. McNeill will regret to learn that he is undergoing treatment in the hospital at Fayetteville for a bruised leg. He has just passed through a successful operation and is slowly improving.

Cain-Milton.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Minnie Florence Cain, daughter of Mrs. Margaret J. Cain, and Mr. Albert Z. Milton, on Wednesday evening, December the fifth, at half past eight o'clock at 415 South Second street.

AFTERNOON WEDDING

Miss Sue Kidder Meares and Mr. T. P. Lovering United in Matrimony.

AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

The Ceremony Was Witnessed by Large Number of Friends of the Contracting Parties—Will Make New York Their Future Home.

Miss Susan Kidder Meares, daughter of Mr. Walker Meares, and Mr. Theodore Philip Lovering, of New York, were happily married at St. James' Episcopal Church, at half past five o'clock yesterday afternoon and when the time appointed for the wedding had arrived the church was comfortably filled with relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The chancel was decorated in palms, ferns, chrysanthemums and candles. Mr. Ed. H. Munson played several appropriate selections on the organ before the ceremony began, and when the party arrived he played the familiar wedding march from Lohlngrin, by which they passed down the aisle.

The ushers—Messrs. William C. Munds, Thomas H. Wright and Clayton Giles, Jr.—were the first to enter and they walked abreast. The ribbon children, little Miss Catharine Williams and Master Harry Reinberg, followed, and then came the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Bailey and Miss Annette Claypoole Munds, a niece of the bride, and Miss Gray of Philadelphia, and Miss Alice Boatwright. The bride and her father, Mr. Walker Meares, who gave her away, met the groom and his best man, Mr. Swift M. Boatwright, at the altar. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Robert Strange, pastor of the bride. The party retired from the church to the strains of "Mendelssohn's Wedding March."

The bride's costume was of white crepe de chene, with a yoke of Duchesse lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids' gowns were of white organdie, with lace trimmings. They carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and a few invited friends were entertained at a reception at the residence of Mr. Walker Meares, No. 712 Market street. The bride's presents were many and valuable.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovering left at 7 o'clock last evening on the A. C. L. north-bound train for New York, where they will make their future home.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Jefferson Lodge, K. of P., Prepared Memorial to Departed Knight.

At last night's meeting of Jefferson Lodge, No. 61, K. of P., the following resolutions of respect were adopted in memory of Mr. E. C. Warren, who was a Past Chancellor in the order and a valued member:

WHEREAS, In view of the loss Jefferson Lodge, No. 61, K. of P., has sustained by the decease of our friend and brother, Past Chancellor Edward C. Warren, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it,

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that we regret his removal from our midst; we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved; That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be recorded and a copy of same forwarded to the mother of our departed brother by the Keeper of Record and Seal of this lodge.

ROBESON'S NEW COTTON MILL.

Contract Has Been Let for the Building. Other Lumberton News Notes.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

LUMBERTON, N. C., Nov. 20.—Work on the Lumberton cotton mills is progressing nicely. Contractor Spencer, of South Carolina, has secured the contract and will begin work in a few days. Mr. Spencer, besides having much experience in contracting, has superintended the construction of several cotton mills, and is in every way well equipped for the business.

We are pleased to note other marks of improvement in Robeson's capital. The Bank of Lumberton, officered as it is by capable men, enjoys the confidence of a large constituency and is a great stimulus to the business life of the entire community. The town also has two excellent semi-weeklies—the Robesonian and the Argus. The Robesonian is fitting up a new office and has purchased new machinery and presses of the most modern style, and will operate the presses in the future by water power.

Mabel Paige Coming.

Mr. J. Wiley Guildtouch, representing the ever popular Mabel Paige Company, which is now playing in Raleigh, was here yesterday making arrangements for the coming of his troupe for a week's engagement beginning next Tuesday evening with the "Captain's Mate," a sensational drama of a high order for popular priced companies. Monday night the Opera House is engaged by the "Spider and Fly" company and the Rhoda Royal circus will also be here.

For Whooping Cough use CHENEY'S EXPECTORANT.

First Baptist Church Revival.

Dr. Hines preached with great earnestness and effectiveness on "Repentance" and sang the beautiful solo, "When the Angels Roll Back the Gates of Pearl," at the First Baptist Church last night. A remarkable conversion was that of a young man who was the subject of special prayers. There was a large crowd present and a number sought prayers for their own salvation.

A Trip to Sea.

Wilmington Division Naval Reserves will likely take a trip to sea on the Hornet Thanksgiving. The matter has not been formally brought before the Division but there is much talk among members of the proposed outing. The cruiser is now lying at foot of Orange street as the Murchison wharf is being used by stevedores loading naval stores.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 22.

BOOSTING THE SUBSIDIES.

The U. S. Commissioner of Navigation has made his annual report for the last fiscal year, which, he says, has been a remarkably prosperous one. For the first time since 1860 the documented tonnage exceeded 5,000,000 tons, as compared with 5,539,813 tons in 1861. We had 23,333 vessels of all descriptions with a gross tonnage of 5,164,839 tons, giving an average of about 221 tons to the vessel, showing that our shipping consists principally of small vessels. Of these 23,333 vessels only 97 were ocean-going vessels, aggregating 260,325 gross tons. The total tonnage of the world's steamships is about 22,369,000, of which the United States has about one per cent. We ought to have more, of course.

The Commissioner takes occasion to impress this upon us, and to hint that the way to get more is to pay subsidies. He doesn't directly advocate this but does indirectly by citing the fact that European governments such as Great Britain, Germany and France pay subsidies to mail ships amounting in the aggregate to $20,000,000 annually and that Great Britain and her colonies have paid the gross sum of $240,000,000 in subsidies. The inference from this is that inasmuch as other governments have paid subsidies therefore this government should. In commenting upon this feature of the report the Philadelphia Record says:

"All the points made by the subsidy mongers are trotted out anew. Thus we are told that the export trade of the United States requires about 20 per cent. of the world's seagoing tonnage; the weight of our exports by sea in 1899 was 24,000,000 gross tons, requiring the steady employment of 1,200 steamships and 1,300 sailing vessels, aggregating 4,600,000 tons. The inference intended to be drawn from these facts is, of course, that the Federal Treasury ought to pay bounties to prospective American ship owners in order to aid them toward earning the freights now paid to foreigners on this enormous traffic. Why the great stake involved should not in itself be an inducement to enterprising Americans to compete for the same is not explained. The Commissioner, to be sure, alludes to the alleged greater labor cost in the construction and navigation of American vessels as being a deterrent; and the consequent necessity of making good the difference to American shippers by the payment of subsidies. In view of the facts, however, that American manufacturers of steel can underbid all comers in the open market and (in spite of higher priced labor) can transport locomotives to all parts of the world and ship to and set up bridges in the heart of Africa there is no need of proof that by the exercise of ingenuity and some increase of skill our shipbuilders could also enter into competition with their more experienced foreign competitors.

"The Commissioner places in juxtaposition the facts that Great Britain during the past ten years built 4,638 steamers for the foreign trade, whereas the United States produced a trifling number in the same time, and repeats the assertion that the former country and its colonies paid over $340,000,000 in bounties to ocean mail steamships. The inuendo is obvious enough; but if the Commissioner had been frank he would not have glossed over the truth that mail steamships constitute only a small fraction of the British merchant fleet, that the sums paid in most instances do not cover the cost of the mail service and that the great mass of British freight steamers obtain no subsidity whatever. The most powerful argument against subsidies is inadvertently made in the statement contained in the report that 30 steamship companies own one-quarter of the ocean steam tonage of the world. Would it be wise to accelerate the concentration of ownership and the breakdown of competition by the creation, with the aid of the people's money, of a gigantic American shipping trusts?"

A few days ago we published an article from the Boston Commercial-Bulletin, stating that the indications pointed to the investment of much capital in the ocean carrying business, which promises to be very lucrative. This statement is borne out by the fact that contracts have been made for a number of ocean steamers, some of them very large ones, and that recently some very large four masted steel sailing ships have been turned out from our yards.

According to Commissioner Chamberlain the total earnings of the ocean carrying ships of the maritime nations amounted in 1899 to $700,000,000 a year, of which at least a third is paid by this country. Surely American enterprise if as free to act as the enterprise of other nations should not only keep at home the money we pay to the owners of foreign ships, but get a considerable portion of the remainder. But the fellows who have their eyes on subsidies will not unshackle American enterprise, but will force it to have ships built in this country, regardless of the cost of building them, although Americans might do better by buying their ships in other shipbuilding countries. The English, French, German or Japanese ship masters can buy their vessels where they choose and sail them under their own flags, but the American who desires to engage in ocean transportation cannot. He can put his money into foreign built ships if he wants to, but if he does he must sail them under a foreign flag, and consequently there are vessels owned wholly or in part by American capitalists which are sailed under the several foreign flags.

It is not creditable to American enterprise to say that Americans cannot compete with Europeans on the high seas when they are everywhere successfully competing with them on land, so much so that a coalition of the leading commercial nations has been suggested as the only effective plan to protect their manufacturers from the aggressive competition of Americans, who are boldly and successfully invading their fields, "carrying the war into Africa."

It is folly under these circumstances, with the developments of the past few years before us, to assert that Americans cannot build and sail ships as cheaply and as profitably as Europeans can. The only reason why they have not turned more attention to ocean transportation and to ship building for sea service, is because they have been holding back with the hope of subsidies, which would enable them to build and sail ships with greater profit. If there were an end to these subsidy schemes and the temptation were no longer presented of bonuses from the Treasury, and it were definitely understood that our ship owners must depend on their own efforts and management for their profits, and the laws were so amended as to permit the purchase of foreign ships to be given American registry the dallying would cease and American capital, which is waiting, would at once find investment in ships and the work of building ocean-going ships would begin in earnest. The talk of subsidies simply retards that kind of investment, and delays the coming of the American merchant marine that all are anxious to see.

But the probabilities are that we will have the subsidies, for Mark Hanna is interested in that, and what Mark says goes (when there is no political danger in it), and the result will be that we will be paying bonuses amounting in the aggregate to $9,000,000 a year for ships that we could have gotten without any bonus.

DROUGHTS AND FLOODS.

Several days ago we published an editorial on floods caused by cutting timber, suggested by a communication in the Charlotte Observer. Pennsylvania, and other States in that section, have suffered much from drought within the past year, which suggests the following, which we clip from the Philadelphia Times:

"The existing drought which has reduced the water supply in various sections of the State to the famine point and threatens to close coal mines and iron furnaces and leave the farmers without drink for their cattle, shows that the movement to protect the forest sections at the sources of our great river systems was not started too soon. The greatest shortage of water exists at present in the mountainous regions which furnish the sources of the Lehigh and Schylkill rivers and exists because these sections have been largely denuded of their forests. No proper provision has been made to protect the young timber from forest fires, and the result is that these hillsides are in many instances as barren as Sahara's desert and hold no water in reserve to supply the streams which should continue to run among the hills even in a time of drought.

"What has befallen the sources of the Schuylkill and Lehigh bids fair to befall the great watersheds of the Delaware, Susquehanna and Allegheny in the near future unless the State acquires and protects the forest sections at their sources, It is not necessary at this juncture to determine whether the denuding of forest areas decreases rainfall or not. Even a normal rainfall upon barren mountains and hillsides runs off quickly to cause destructive floods in the rainy seasonss and leave springs and brook beds without water in dry. A goodly forest reserve would absorb and hold this water to find its way into springs and small streams gradually and continuously at all seasons.

"The private owners of the forest lands at the sources of the Lehigh and Schuylkill rivers stripped their land of marketable timber, and forest fires and drought have done the rest. Private owners are doing the same thing with like results everywhere, and the towns without a water supply and the mines that must be speedily closed if no rain falls between the freezing weather of Winter sets in should furnish all the object lessons necessary on the folly of permitting the forests at the sources of our greater river systems to be further denuded. The remaining forest lands should be acquired by the State as speedily as possible and then protected effectually against fire. If this is not done the experience of the towns in the anthracite coal region in the present dry season will become the experience of the smaller towns in all sections of the State in the near future."

We reproduce this because it is as applicable to North Carolina as it is to Pennsylvania. That State permitted her forests to be denuded because she had an abundance of timber and didn't realize the consequences of indiscriminate cutting and damage by fire until it was too late. Now she is trying to repair the damage done to some extent, at least, by buying land for forestry reservation, having already purchased over 800,000 acres.

Throughout the timber sections of the South the destruction of the forests is now going on even more rapidly than it did in Pennsylvania, and unless it is checked and more moderation shown we will pay the inevitable penalty in droughts and floods.

THE OPEN DOOR

In discussing the other day the petition of Southern cotton manufacturers to this government to use its efforts to maintain the "open door" in China we remarked that the land-grabbing nations which had secured a foothold in that Empire would favor the open door so long as it might be their interest to do so and only so long. Every one of the so-called allies is scheming to promote its own interests, and it will move in accord with other nations only so long as that may conduce to its interests or be deemed good policy. The dispatches yesterday inform us that some of the powers were either insincere in their promises as to the partition of Chins and the open door policy, or they have changed their minds. They were probably insincere.

The two powers playing the big hand for grab, are Russia and Germany, the others looking on to be governed by circumstances and opportunites. This Government is the only one, perhaps, mixed up in that business which hasn't grab on the brain. While pretending not to have any grabbing designs Chancellor Von Buelow while disclaiming any desire for the partition of China, in his speech before the Reichstag, Monday, declared that "we will not overreach any one nor will we permit any one to overreach us;" which means that while other governments keep hands off, Germany may do likewise, but when the grabbing begins then she to prevent being overreached will do some grabbing on her own account. Russia has already grabbed and annexed Manchuria.

And thus the game goes on and they haven't made a beginning in solving the Chinese problem, because everyone of them wants to solve it it's own way, the way that will best subserve its own interests. The "open door" will figure in it only so far as they may deem it to their interest. If this government sees it maintained it will be either by very shrewed diplomacy by combination with other powers, or by force, and with the present lights before us it is not appeared how this is going to be done.

WILL LET THE SOUTH ALONE.

The reports coming from Washington sustain the opinion that there will not be any serious effort made to reduce Southern representation in Congress and in the electoral college. A few days ago a dispatch stated that President McKinley was, for various reasons, opposed to any movement of that kind, and yesterday Representative Hopkins, chairman of the House Committee on Census, was quoted as saying that the status of the South will remain undisturbed. A couple days ago Gen. Grosvenor, of Ohio, was interviewed on this subject and replied, in characteristic, biting tone: "Give the South a chance and it will hang itself! I am in favor of letting it do so. We have not time just yet to take any action in the matter, anyway. There will be nothing done on that line during the coming session."

If it were not for the fact of Grosvenor's close relations with the President his utterances would not amount to any more than the utterances of other members, but he is a sort of mouthpiece of the President, and doubtless stands in with Hanna, and therefore probably speaks with authority on what will not be done. Some of the gentlemen who are too full to retain it will doubtless get this matter up and free themselves of some talk, and having taken their whack at the South will subside. That is about as far as the business will go this session, and by the time the next session comes around they may forget all about it, or have their hands full of something else, so that we need not bother our heads much about the reduction of representation.

That Colorado coroner's jury couldn't find enough of that incinerated individual to hold an inquest over and then they couldn't find anybody who had anything to do with the performance. Colorado inquests under certain circumstances don't inquest much.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles, 10c at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Salisbury Sun: Rev. Gerny Weber died at his home Monday after on illness of four months. Mr. Weber was taken sick of typhoid fever on the 23rd of July and was violently ill from the first. In October, 1899 Mr. Weber came to Salisbury to become pastor of Faith Reformed church.

— Charlotte News: Eliza Butler, colored, wife of the late Pelham Butler, a well-known colored woman of this city, attempted to light a fire Monday evening with kerosene, the can caught fire, exploded, and the woman was so badly burned burned that she died from her injuries this (Tuesday) morning.

— Clarkton Express: Diphtheria is prevailing to some extent in the neighborhood of Prong. One child has died and several others are very sick. Scarlet fever is also prevailing in the Welsh's Creek section in Columbus county. The health officer, Dr. I Jackson, ordered a public school stopped in the neighborhood. One child has died in that community.

— Laurinburg Exchange: Orom, the son of Mr. J. E Peel, of Laurel Hill township, met death in a tragic manner last Saturday, November 17th. While out hunting with some young companions he attempted to cross a ditch on a log. He lost his foothold, falling into the ditch, and the hammer of his gun striking an obstruction and discharging the load, which caused death instantly.

— High Point Enterprise: High Point Shirt Co., now occupying the second floor of the brick building adjoining J. A. Clinard's, has purchased a lot on English street, fronting High Point Chair Co., and will build at an early day. The building will be of brick, 100x60 feet, and two stories in height. —— Burglars went into Beeson hardware store last Monday night by removing the large glass in the front door and carried off several pistols and pocket-knives, the value of which was about $40. They did a slick piece of work and apparently with little noise, as there were two or three people sleeping overhead. The money drawer, in which there was a small amount, was not molested.

— Fayetteville Observer: Mr. Wm. E. Rhodes was brought down from Godwin yesterday afternoon violently insane and placed in jail to await transference to the asylum. Yesterday he was only prevented from killing his wife by his father, K. J. Rhodes, who subdued him after a terrible struggle. Last May Mr. Rhodes, in a fit of despair over the illness of his wife, attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. So fearful were the wounds that he inflicted that it was thought that he would die, but he recovered, and then it was found that he was insane. He was sent to the asylum, and a few months ago was discharged apparently all right, and so he remained up to a few weeks ago.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— President McKinley, it is said, intends to recommend that a reduction of $15,000,000 per annum be made in the war-tax. That will relieve the people to the extent of 20 cents a year per capita. Such generosity is unheard of, and we beg the President to reflect before he hurls the country into bankruptcy.—Norfolk Landmark, Dem.

—— Germany has started in to develop her cotton fields on the west coast of Africa, and for that purpose has secured, through Booker T. Washington, the service of a number of expert cotton-raisers in this country. Of course the purpose is to enter the field of competition against the United States. It may be that the time is not distant when cotton cotton will cease to be "king" in the South.—Baltimore Herald, Rep.

——"No more talk, hereafter," says the Boston Record, (Rep.) about the 'moral side' or the 'ethical side' or the Philippines business. That received a quietus at the polls. Hereafter it must be discussed from a commercial and business standpoint, Does it pay? Can we get back the money we are investing?" That is frank, at any rate. How do the Democrats in the South, who voted the Republican ticket on "business" principles, like it?—Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

—— The big guns are ahead once more in the unending struggle between immovable body and irresistible forces which naval experts carry on the world over. Uncle Sam's latest 12-inch naval gun develops the amazing muzzle velocity of 2854 feet per second, and its 850-pound steel projectile could be smashing through any protective armor yet put on a battleship. The gun will do the work of destruction, sure enough; the only difficulty with these steel-belted monsters is the hitting of the mark. Hundreds of 12-inch shot and shell were sent hurtling at the Spanish foe on land and sea during the recent petty war with Spain; but it has not been recorded that a single one of these huge messengers of death reached its mark.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life, and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He did not count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

THE IRL R. HICK'S 1901 ALMANAC.

Whatever may be said of the scientific causes upon which the Rev. Irl R. Hicks bases his yearly forecasts of storm and weather, it is a remarkable fact that specific warnings of every great storm, flood, cold wave and drouth have been plainly printed in his now famous almanac for many years. The latest startling proof of this fact was the destruction of Galveston, Tex., on the very day named by Prof. Hicks in his 1900 almanac as one of the disasters by storm along the gulf coast. The 1901 almanac, by far the finest, most complete and beautiful yet published, is now ready. This remarkable book of near two hundred pages, splendidly illustrated with charts and half-tone engravings, goes as a premium to every subscriber who pays $1 a year for Prof. Hicks' journal, Word and Works. The almanac alone is sent prepaid for only 25 cents. STICK TO SIMPLE FOOD.

The American Business Man's Pace Demands Easily Digested Dishes.

"There was in the old days far less wear and tear upon the nerves, and, under such conditions, digestion was more completely performed," writes Mrs. S. T. Rorer of "Why I Am Opposed to Pies," in The Ladies' Home Journal. "The mothers of today must look more carefully to the building of their bodies and brains than their mothers and grandmothers did. Indeed at the pace at which we Americans are going we use our brains at full speed nearly all the time. What man can build brain and brawn on pies, layer cakes or preserves or any other mass of material which from its very complexity requires labor and time for digestion, drawing the blood from the brain to the stomach during his working hours? Observe those who eat their complex foods carelessly and hastily and you will see at a glance the conditions that necessitate a complete rest every now and then, or an early nervous breakdown.

"In my close observation in the last 20 years I find very few people in our common struggle for existence who can for any length of time eat carelessly of complex foods. At 40 or 50 a man may perhaps have accumulated wealth, but not health, and of what earthly use is the first without the second? Many persons in the generation gone before have eaten pies at least once a day, but they have not had meat three times a day, nor have they rushed at our pace. They gave more time to the digestion of the pie. People who recommend these rich foods rarely know anything of their complex conditions and still less of the complexity of digestion."

A Doctor's Letter.

A well known M. P. tells an amusing story of an old aunt of his. Being on one occasion very nervous, she told her physician she thought Bath would do her good.

"It's very odd," said Dr. W., "but that's the very thing that I was going to recommend to you. I will write the particulars of your case to a very clever man there, in whose hands you will be well taken care of."

The lady, furnished with the letter, set off. On arriving at Bath, feeling as usual, very nervous, she said to a confidant:

"Long as Dr. Walter has attended me he has never explained to me what ails me. I have a great mind to open his letter and see what he has stated of my case to the Bath physician."

In vain her friend represented to her the breach of confidence this would be. She opened the letter and read:

Dear Davis—Keep the old lady three weeks and send her back again.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The cotton market to-day made a lower start, following disappointing English cables, but the loss was soon recovered and a marked net gain scored on a return of bull confidence, a reaction abroad and substantial evidence that the public was again a buyer. The late market was weak under realizing. While operations were on a smaller scale there was a large trade recorded, with January and March the chief options dealt in. The market started steady, with prices down two to five points, following the disappointing advices from Liverpool. Local bulls bought on the decline, and a wave of profit taking carried prices ten to twelve points lower in the first hour, but sentiment changed at this point and the market again exhibited pronounced strength, while prices advanced well above the close of yesterday. The late cables indicated nervousness among the foreign shorts, the advices received from the South told of higher spot markets on urgent demand from exporters and American spinners, but added that holders were offered very little cotton even at the higher prices. Decreased crop estimates had considerable weight in strengthening bull sentiment and a severe storm was said to be doing general damage in the central belt. Throughout the day profit-taking was a prominent feature, and during the last hour the offerings were very heavy. As a result prices declined with a rush. At the close the market was weak and irregular with prices three to nine points lower.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Cotton firm; middling uplands 10¼c.

Futures closed weak and irregular: November 10.01, December 9.83, January 9.79, February 9.77, March 9.76, April 9.77, May 9.75, June 9.72, July 9.70, August 9.55, September 8.85.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 10¼c; middling gulf 10¼c; sales 773 bales.

Net receipts 1,001 bales; gross receipts 4,827 bales; stock 40,073 bales.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Flour was fairly active and firm. Higher prices were asked on some grades. Wheat—Spot strong; No. 2 red 78⅝. Options were well sustained all day, although within a narrow range and without much activity. Light offerings, the strength in corn, steady cables, early foreign buying on a liberal scale and occasional demands from shorts were the principal bull features. Closed firm and ½@¾c net higher: March closed 80⅜c; May closed 80¼c; November closed 77¼c; December closed 77¼c. Corn—Spot firm; No. 2 46¼c. Options opened easy under monetary local pressure, but at once rallied and were strong all day on big clearances, light country offerings and another jump in November at Chicago. Closed firm at ⅜@½c net advance; May closed 43¼; November closed —c; December closed 43¾c. Oats—Spot firm; No. 3 26¼c. Options quiet but firmer. Lard steady; Western steam $7 67½; refined steady. Pork steady. Tallow firm. Butter-market steady; Western creamery 19@26c; State dairy 16@24c. Rice firm. Eggs steady; State and Pennsylvania 24@28c at mark, for average lots; Western regular packing 21@24c. Potatoes steady; Jerseys $1 00 1 37½; New York $1 25@1 62½; Long Island $1 50@1 75; Jerseys sweets $1 75 @2 75. Cabbage steady; Long Island, per 100, $3 00@4 00. Peanuts quiet; fancy hand-picked 4¼@5c; other domestic 4c. Petroleum quoted steady. Cheese quiet; large September fancy 10¾c; small September fancy 11c. Freights to Liverpool—Cotton by steam 25c. Cotton seed oil was quiet and rather easy on spot but steadier on futures. Quotations: Prime crude in barrels, 29½c, nominal; prime summer yellow 33c; off summer yellow 32¾c; prime winter yellow 38@40c; prime white 37@38c; prime meal $26 00@26 50. Coffee—Spot Rio easy; No. 7 invoice 7½c; mild quiet; Cordova 9½@13¼c. Sugar—Raw firm; refined steady.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Corn was again the big market on the Board of Trade to day. It was more apparent than ever that November corn was cornered and that option was bid up 3¾c. December closed ¾c higher. Wheat was helped a little by the corn strength, local buying causing an advance of ¾c at the close. Oats closed a shade lower and provisions unchanged to 7½c higher.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Cash quotations: Flour—Market easy. Wheat—No. 2—c; No. 3 spring 66@73¼c; No. 2 red 71@78¼c. Corn—No. 2, —c. Oats—No. 2 22½c; No. 2 white 24½@26½c; No. 3 white 24½@25½c. Pork, per barrel, $10 87½@11 00. Lard, per 100 lbs, quoted at $7 15. Short rib sides, loose, $7 25@7 75. Dry salted shoulders, $5 87½@6 12½. Short clear sides, boxed $6 90@7 00. Whiskey—Distillers' finished goods, per gallon, $1 27.

The leading futures ranged as follows—opening, highest, lowest and closing: Wheat—No. 2 November 70½, 71½, 70¾, 71¾; December 70¾@70⅞, 71¾, 70¾, 71¾@70¾c; January 71⅜@71¾, 72¼@72¾, 71¼, 72¼c. CATARRH OF THE KIDNEYS.

THE REMARKABLE CURE

Of Cases of Bright's Disease After They Had Been Given Up to Die.

Mr. J. Brake of Petrolea, Ontario, Canada, writes: "Four years ago I had a severe attack of Bright's Disease, which brought me so low the doctor said nothing more could be done for me. When one of your lectures on the above disease was read to me I began to take Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, and found it acted just as represented. In three months I was a well man, and have continued so ever since."

Hon. J. Brake.

Mr. J. N. Howard of Marble, Ark., says: "It has been nearly two months since I wrote you giving a description of my case. I began taking Pe-ru-na and when I got your letter I followed the directions. My doctor had no hope of my getting well. My bowels were so bloated that I could not rest day or night for I ate anything at all. I thought my case was hopeless. But words cannot express my praise for your medicines. My friends were wonderfully surprised when they saw me improving. But I have not suffered a day since I began taking your medicines; I eat anything I wish and have a good appetite. I was suffering from dropsy also, so I could not get my clothes on and my feet were all swelled up."

Mrs. Mary A. Shear, Jennings, La., says: "I am recommending your medicines to every one I hear complain. My disease was Bright's disease of the kidneys. I am quite well now."

The kidneys are subject to catarrh the same as any other organ. The catarrh may be slight, giving rise to little or no disturbance, or severe, producing a genuine case of Bright's disease of the kidneys. The symptoms of catarrh of the kidneys are weak back, dull pains in back and hips, sometimes high-colored and sometimes clear urination.

Catarrh of the kidneys quickly leads to chronic Bright's disease. Pe-ru-na should be taken at the appearance of the first symptom. If taken in the early stages of the disease Pe-ru-na is sure to cure every case. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh of the kidneys simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. No other systemic catarrh remedy has as yet been devised. Insist upon having Pe-ru-na. There are no medicines that can be substituted. There is no other remedy that can be relied on to cure catarrh of the kidneys. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh of any organ of the human body. Send for free catarrh book. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug M'f'g Co., Columbus, O.

WHEN DOGS ARE SICK.

The Way to Give Medicine to Those Highly Sensitive Patients.

In all treatment of a sick dog remember you are dealing with a highly sensitive and nervous patient. Be very gentle, avoid roughness or anything likely to alarm him. In giving him any liquid medicine do not open his mouth, but, placing him between your knees, with his face looking in the same direction as your own, gently raise his jaw and, pulling his lips away from his teeth on one side of his mouth, to form a cup or funnel, very slowly pour from bottle or spoon the quantity he is to have into it.

Keep his head raised for a minute or two and if he does not swallow the dose insert a spoon between his front teeth. This will have the effect of drawing off his attention from the medicine and he will usually swallow at once. If the dose is a pill, bolus or anything solid, hold his head the same way as before mentioned, but with the left hand under lower jaw, press firmly on each side with thumb and finger at the junction of upper and lower jaws.

This will usually cause him to open his mouth, when the dose should be put into the mouth as far back as possible over the tongue (or he will spit it out) and close the jaws somewhat sharply, and in most cases the deed is done. If any trouble arises with the action of his front paws this may be got over by wrapping him round with a shawl or coarse apron.

When once you have got into the way of it, you will be surprised how simple it is. I am quite sure a practiced owner or kennelsman would dose a dozen dogs while a novice was making a bungle over one.—"All About Dogs," by Charles Henry Lane.

THE COLLAR BUTTON.

Its Blessings Realized Only by Those Who Have Lived Without It.

"In looking over a trunk full of old truck the other day," said the elderly man, "I came across a lot of old shirts with the buttons sewed on, and as I looked at them I realized anew what the collar button means to humanity. There have been greater inventions, surely, but not many that have conferred a more unmixed blessing on mankind.

"The younger person of today, accustomed to the collar button always, cannot realize what it was to be without it. He can never know what it was to have shirts with the buttons sewed on—or not, as the case might be. Not so very many years ago, when the collar button was yet comparatively new, before persons had come to keep, as everybody commonly does now, a lot of buttons on hand, the man who had lost his collar button thought himself entitled to the sympathy of his fellows, but wrung as he might he by that loss he could not even guess at the anguish that in the sewed on button days filled the heart of the man who, when he came to put on his last clean shirt, found that key button, the one on the collar band, most important one of all, gone entirely or only just hanging by a thread!

"I knew a man once who had this happen to him and didn't swear. That was the only great thing he ever did, but I have always thought that that alone was enough to stamp him as a most extraordinary man."—New York Sun.

Ditched the Bishop.

"I remember once driving across the country with Bishop ——," writes Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady of "A Missionary In the Great West" in the Ladies' Home Journal, "while discussing the nature of the soul. That is, the bishop was discussing. I was only prompting by a question now and then. We were on the rear seat of a wagon, with the driver on the front seat. It was a very dark night. In the middle of the bishop's exposition the wagon took a wild plunge, there was a crash, and over we went into the muddy ditch.

"'I beg your pardon, gents!' said the driver, who had retained control of the horses as we scrambled to our feet. 'I was so interested in hearin the man discussin my immortal soul, which I hardly ever knowed that I had one before, that I clean forgot where we was and drove you plump into the ditch.'"

Better to Have Waited.

The other morning Jones turned up at the office even later than usual. His employer, tired of waiting for him, had himself set about registering the day's transactions, usually Jones' first duty. The enraged merchant laid his pen aside very deliberately and said to Jones, very sternly indeed, "Jones, this will not do!"

"No, sir," replied Jones gently, drawing off his coat as he glanced over his employer's shoulder, "it will not. You have entered McKurken's order in the wrong book. Far better to have waited till I came!"—Pearson's Weekly.

A Thieves' Trick.

A mastiff was trained to assist thieves in Paris. It was in the habit of bounding against old gentlemen and knocking them over in the street. A "lady" and "gentleman"—owners of the dog—would then step forward to assist the unfortunate pedestrian to rise, and while doing so would ease him of his watch and purse.

Lord Sayvan-De Livrus—Ah, but your leisure clawss in this country have no titles.

Miss Sharpe—Nonsense! What's the matter with "hobo," "Weary Willie," "Dusty Roads," and so on?—Philadelphia Press.

Nearer at Hand.

"Did you ever reflect on the immensity of the solar system?"

"No. I've got my mind full reflecting on the size of the note I have to pay next week."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Periodical Famines Expected.

Since the first great famine of which there are records devastated the land in 1770, when 10,000,000 perished in Bengal alone, India has scarcely passed a decade free from scarcity of grain in one district or another. The British government expects a drought about twice in every nine years, a famine once in every 11 or 12 years and a great famine about twice in a century. —Review of Reviews.

Tobacco.

Numerous observations prove that the use of tobacco is a potent cause of disease of the eye. Total blindness from degeneration of the optic nerve has been traced to this cause. Recent observations point to tobacco and alcohol as the great causes of color blindness, and this accounts for the fact that it is much more common in men than in women.—Health Culture

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.

THE SMART LAWYER.

He Made a Little Mistake That Cost Him Much Money.

This is so blamed true that it is interesting—very much so: A well known Maine attorney is especially noted for his keenness in looking out for the best end of every bargain and for his ability in getting hold of that end. It has made him unpopular in some circles—has that trait of his!

On one deal not long ago he was in with a couple of friends, men of wealth and standing. Business was good the first year. There was a generous division of profits. But the lawyer wasn't satisfied with what was coming to him, share and share alike with the others. After receiving his proper whack as a partner he exacted $500 more for "counsel fees."- He said that as a lawyer he was worth that much more to the deal. This was a new way of looking at the matter, but the bill was resignedly allowed by the friends.

They were pretty good business men, understand. In a little while they saw that the venture wasn't panning out very well. So the shrewd men of affairs quietly unloaded without saying anything to their partner. Then a little later came the crash.

The lawyer hurried around to hold a consolation meeting with the other two.

"Gracious! Isn't this too bad?" moaned he. "I lost so-and-so. How much did you fellows drop? You must have been hit pretty hard."

"You're wrong, old boy," came the cheerful duet. "We never lost a dollar; no, we never lost a cent. Tra la!"

"Wha-t-t-t?"

"Never lost a dollar. We saw it coming two months ago. Had a tip. Unloaded. All out."

"Well, then, why in the name of all that's square and above board didn't you tell me?"

"Well, we would have had you allowed us $500 counsel fees when you took yours. See?"—Lewiston Journal.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 22.

EX-PRESIDENT KRUGER.

Failure to Arrive at Marseilles a Great Disappointment to Waiting Thousands of Frenchmen.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 21.—A blunder in the calculations of the time the Gelderland would require between Port Said and Marseilles resulted in the fizzing out to day of the intended demonstration in honor of President Kruger and imperilled the success of the reception to-morrow. The French reception committee did not take into account the gale that is sweeping the Mediterranean and the low speed of the Gelderland, but allowed all their arrangements to stand.

The Gelderland signalled Cape Cepot, off Toulon, at 2 P. M., and continued her voyage to this port. She reported that she was delayed by a slight accident to her machinery. The Gelderland cannot arrive here before nightfall and the former President of the Transvaal will not land until to-morrow.

Bad weather and the element of uncertainty as to the time of Mr. Kruger's landing kept many thousands even to day from the route. Thirty thousand would be a generous estimate of the crowd, which was massed thickly at several points, while only sparse assemblies were to be seen elsewhere.

The French and the Boer delegations were all intensely disappointed especially as up to a late hour no news had been received of the Gelderland's entry into the harbor, although it is fully expected that she will anchor there before daybreak to-morrow. No importance is attached to the report of an injury to her machinery. The theory being that she is merely going slowly in consequence of the heavy sea which is chiefly responsible for the delay.

An amusing statement appeared in a local paper this afternoon in which an alleged rumor was published to the effect that the delay was due to the capture of the Gelderland on the high seas by a British squadron, or to deliberate damage to her machinery by a mercenary. Naturally these statements only provoked the laughter of those who read them.

The Boer committee issued an announcement that the programme intended for to day will be carried out to-morrow.

The attitude of to-day's concourse, while unanimously favorable to Mr. Kruger and the Boers, was nevertheless quite free from anything offensive to the British, which tended to enhance the absurdity of a noisy promenade along the principal boulevards this evening by a score of anti-English youths, whose efforts led to no disorder whatever.

TO INCREASE THE ARMY.

Large Force of Regulars Needed to Replace the Volunteers Now in the Philippine Islands.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—Adjutant General Corbin authorizes the statement that it is the intention of the War Department to bring home from the Philippines to the United States every one of the volunteers who cares to come, and discharge them here, on or before the first of July next, when under the law the volunteers must be mustered out. It is the expectation and hope of the War Department that the coming Congress will, at an early period in its session, enact legislation which will enable the department to replace the present volunteer force by a permanent force of soldiers. In that case, such of them in the ranks as care to continue in the service will be re-enlisted as regulars, and any vacancies that may exist through the muster out of the volunteers will be supplied by the original enlistments in the United States. It is believed that these enlistments can be made in time to replace all the retired volunteers by the first of the next fiscal year without causing any hiatus.

TEMPORARY HALT IN NEGOTIATIONS

Point of Difference Developed at Meeting of Foreign Ministers in Pekin.

WILL CAUSE MORE DELAY.

Chinese Report Allies Burning Villages. Threatened Attack by Large Forces of Boxers on Tien Tsin and Pekin—Minister Conger.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PEKIN, Nov. 19, via Shanghai, Nov. 21.—The meeting of the foreign envoys to-day unexpectedly developed a point of difference, which brought the negotiations to a temporary standstill. The matter will be referred to the home governments. The conference adjourned without fixing a date for reassembling.

It is said that the difference is such as will possibly cause considerable delay.

Li Hung Chang is known to have unofficially approached certain ministers with a view of ascertaining the likelihood of the Powers consenting to reduce the punishment of Chinese officials to degradation by banishment, but it is understood that he received no encouragement.

Reports from Chinese sources say that a German and Italian column is burning villages to the northward.

Boxers Threaten an Attack.

TIEN TSIN, November 20, via Shanghai, November 21.—There has been considerable firing recently in the neighborhood of Tien Tsin, and owing to a report that the German quarter of the city would be attacked last night, the German sentries were doubled, a regiment patrolled the opposite bank of the river, and the remainder of the German troops were ordered to hold themselves in readiness for action at an instant's notice.

Nothing happened, however, to show cause for alarm, although to-day all the Chinese servants of the Bengal Lancers' officers and men left, saying they had been informed that the Boxers were marching in a large body on Tien Tsin and Pekin.

Neither General Lorne Campbell, of the British troops, nor Colonel Moale, of the Americans, believe there is any truth in the rumor, but the natives evidently believe it, and many of them are leaving the service of the foreigners.

Col. Yorck's Expedition.

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—Count Von Waldersee cables from Pekin that he will return the viceroy's visit to-day. He has advices from Colonel Yorck's corps, showing that the Chinese admiral Ho, with 10,000 regular troops and much artillery, is near Kalgan prepared to resist energetically a further advance of the expedition. Colonel Yorck, therefore, will await reinforcements before attempting to proceed.

Punishments Not Sufficient.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The State Department has received a cablegram from Minister Conger, the first received in over a week, expressing the opinion that the punishments proposed for the offending Chinese leaders in the Chinese Imperial edict, are not sufficient. He does not discuss the other details of the negotiations.

EXPRESS CAR ROBBED.

Train Held Up by Masked Men in Arkansas—The Express Car Blown to Pieces With Dynamite.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Nov. 21.—The north bound passenger train No. 56 on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railway was held up to-night near Gifford station, forty miles south of Little Rock, by five masked robbers. A lot of ties piled on the track and surmounted by a red light caused the train to slow up and before the train had come to a stop, the bandits were at work with dynamite. The door of the express car was blown open and the express messenger, L. D. Avery, of St. Louis, was seriously injured by flying timbers. Four vain attempts were made to blow open the through safe. Their supply of dynamite being exhausted, the robbers left with only the contents of the way safe, amounting to about $300. No attempt was made to rob any of the passengers. The express car was literally blown to pieces.

A posse of fifteen men left Malvern at 10 o'clock to-night and took the trail of the robbers at the scene of the hold-up.

Governor Jones announced to-night that he will offer rewards for the capture of the bandits. It is thought that they have fled towards the Indian Territory.

BELL TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

All the Companies to Be Consolidated Under One Management.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 21.—The Journal this evening says the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Cumberland Telephone Company, operating exclusively in the Southern States, are to be consolidated under a single management in the immediate future.

Following this will occur a grand consolidation of all the Bell systems, including the consolidated companies of the Cumberland and Southern Bell, the Chesapeake and Potomac, the Chicago, New York and Boston, and all other systems under the direct management of the American Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, with headquarters in New York.

FOR AGED ODD FELLOWS.

The National Home at Gainesville, Fla., Soon to Be Opened.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

GAINESVILLE, FLA., November 21.—A meeting of the board of trustees of the National Odd Fellows' Home and Sanitarium was held in this city to-day at the office of the secretary, Dr. R. L. Robb. The home is for aged Odd Fellows, cared for by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. There has been a delay in opening, but at this meeting it was decided to open. The home will be in a first class condition financially, as in response to the appeals made under the auspices of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, the members all over the United States have responded liberally.

TERRIBLE WORK OF TORNADO LAST TUESDAY.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property in Northern Mississippi and Tennessee.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NASHVILLE, TENN., November 21.—Dispatches up to 9 o'clock P. M., indicate that last night's storm which swept over Northern Mississippi and Central and Western Tennessee was one of great severity. Advices by the Associated Press, and from special correspondents, show that the total loss of life in the territory visited by the tornado amounts to sixty-four and the number injured to over fifty. Telegraphic communication to regions visited by the cyclone is interrupted and it is feared that when full details are known that the list of dead will be lengthened.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., November 21.—By telephone from Columbia, Tenn., the following details of the storm were obtained this afternoon:

"Loss of life in the vicinity of Columbia is estimated at from 35 to 40. Most of these were negroes, about twelve or fourteen only being white. The storm did not strike the town of Columbia proper."

Most Destructive Ever Known.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 21.—Tennessee was swept last night by the most destructive storm ever known in the State. More than fifty persons were killed and a hundred more injured, while the damage to houses, timber and other property will reach large figures.

The storm entered the State from Northern Mississippi and swept across in a northeasterly direction. Great damage is reported from counties bordering on Mississippi and further on. Columbia, in Mauray county, is the heaviest sufferer. Lavergn, Nolansville, and Gallatin also felt the winds' force, the storm finally losing its force against the Cumberland mountain range.

Columbia's casualties number twenty-five dead and fifty injured. The list so far as known, being as follows:

Dead—Misses Florence and Evelyn Farrell, Captain and Mrs. A. F. Aydelott, Guy Aydelott, Paul Aydelott, James Cherry, Miss Lizzie Forsythe, Mrs. Tom Carroll, Miss M. J. Viles, (all white), and a number of negroes.

The path of the storm was about fifty yards wide and was through the northwestern suburbs of the town. In its path everything is completely wrecked. Not even the iron and stone fences of the arsenal grounds are standing. The houses of Capt. Aydelott, the Farrells, and other large residences, were demolished.

With the exception of these four houses, the storms' path was through a section of the town populated chiefly by negroes and the poor classes and the houses were mere hovels. It is estimated that 150 of them were totally destroyed and a larger number damaged.

The suffering of the people, rendered homeless, and bereft of all their goods, is pitiable.

The number of houses destroyed in the Nolansville neighborhood is sixteen. There were two fatalities, as follows: Miss Mamie Hampton, aged 25. Mrs. Nancy Bramlett, aged 65.

Immense damage was done to farms and hundreds of head of live stock were killed.

Considerable damage resulted at Martin's Mill and at Indian Creek. Twenty houses at Dallas, Ala., near Huntsville, were demolished, but no lives were lost.

Near Franklin, the residence of Mr. Little was destroyed. Mr. Little and Mr. S. M. Hughes were badly hurt. At Boxtres, a storehouse was destroyed and three negroes were killed.

Loss of Life at LaGrange.

KANSAS CITY, MO., November 21.—A telegram received at the general offices of the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis railway here confirms the report that nineteen lives were lost at and near LaGrange, Tenn. Property damage in LaGrange amounted to nearly $40,000. The storm, according to the railway officials, circled around Memphis, beginning at Lulu, Miss., fifty-six miles south of Memphis, in the Yazoo and Mississippi valley, and through Batesville, Miss., on the Illinois Central railroad, about sixty miles south of Memphis, to the northeast through LaGrange.

Thirty-five Dwellings Destroyed.

At Lavergne, on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis road, the velocity of the wind was marvellous and from best reports lasted only twenty seconds. In this short time about thirty-five dwellings were turned into kindling wood. The loss of life is small, compared with the miraculous escapes made. The wind made a swath about 200 yards wide through the middle of the town. The Lavergne high school and the depot, the two largest buildings, were laid flat on the ground. The loss of these two buildings is placed at $7,000. The railroad lost four section houses, each valued at $900. The victims of the tornado are:

George Robertson and his six-months-old child. Mr. Robertson's house, which was a very strong log structure, was in the middle of the path of the storm and was laid flat on the ground. At the time Mr. Robertson and his child had retired and his wife was sitting near the bed sewing and before the latter could even warn her husband, death had claimed them. Mrs. Robertson's escape was marvelous. When found the unfortunate man was pinned across the back by a large timber and a great scar was on the back of his neck. No mark could be discerned on the body of the child. Both are thought to have met instant death.

In almost every home there were several injured.

In Williamson county great damage was done, but the town of Franklin escaped with comparatively small loss.

MEETS PRESIDENT'S VIEWS.

Proposed Reduction of $30,000,000 a Year in War Revenue Taxes.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The Republican members of the Ways and Means committee made such progress to-day with the bill to amend the war revenue law that it is expected the first draft will be completed by to-morrow night.

The committee decided to make a reduction of $30,000,000 a year. This is the amount suggested by Secretary Gage yesterday, and it is understood meets the views of the President; in fact, the members of the Ways and Means committee who saw the President last evening say that previous to Secretary Gage appearing before the committee the whole matter had been carefully considered by the President and the secretary.

HORRIBLE CRIME NEAR CHARLOTTE

Two Old Ladies Robbed, Murdered and Bodies Burned in Their Homes.

NO CLUE TO PERPETRATORS.

The Victims Lived Alone on the Main Thoroughfare Five Miles from the City and Were Reported to Have a Large Amount of Money.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., November 21.—Two old ladies, Violet J. Colley, aged 75, and her niece, Jane Cath. Colley, who lived alone in a house on the main thoroughfare, five miles from Charlotte, were last night murdered, robbed, and their bodies burned. The old ladies were generally reported to be wealthy, and it is known they had a good deal of money. They had lived a retired life for years and seldom ventured from home, not even to the city, except when business compelled a visit.

The house which they occupied stood within a hundred and fifty feet of the roadside. Near it was a small building which they used as a kitchen, in which they kept their stores. People passing along the road this morning saw that the small house had been burned. There was not a sign of life about the place, and an investigation showed that the dwelling had been ransacked from top to bottom, indicating that a most thorough search had been made for the money which the old ladies were supposed to have kept in the house. Bureaus, cabinets and desks had been opened, and their contents strewn about. Every nook and corner of the dwelling bore evidence of having been searched. The general surroundings and the absence of the old couple pointed all too plainly to acts of murder, robbery and arson, and it was no surprise when a search of the ashes of the small building revealed two burned stumps, the bodies of Miss Colley and her niece.

The supposition is that the old ladies were attacked while they were at supper, after which their residence was sacked and the house in which their bodies lay was fired. For years past they had been known to be accumulating money, and had probably saved up $1,200.

There is absolutely no clue to the perpetrators of the deed. The neighborhood people are greatly stirred up and both city and county officials are using every effort to get a trace of the murderers.

TORNADO IN COLORADO.

Colorado Springs Storm Swept—No Loss of Life But Many Persons Injured. Great Damage to Property.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COL., November 21.—A wind storm, which was practically a tornado, visited this city to-day and up to this hour, 5 P. M., has caused great damage to many buildings. As far as is known, no lives have been lost, but numbers have been more or less injured by flying wreckage, while many people have had very narrow escapes. The roof of the Durkee building, one of the largest in the city, now lies in Tejon street and the storm is causing general havoc to the adjacent buildings. The Exchange National Bank building's roof went off into the air at 8 o'clock and the skylights of the Mining Exchange have been demolished.

It is dangerous for any one to be on the streets, and the full extent of the damage cannot be learned until daybreak.

The storm began about 11 A. M., and has continued all day, increasing in intensity to night. The government wind recorder's instrument has been blown away. The last record is 85 miles an hour.

The people throughout the city are badly frightened and are cowering with fear in their homes. Many outhouses and barns have been wrecked and many dwelling houses unroofed. Damage to property will undoubtedly exceed $100,000. Railroad traffic is badly crippled. The city is in total darkness.

VICE IN NEW YORK CITY.

Dr. Parkhurst to Discuss the Question at a Meeting in Cooper Union.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, November 21.—Wheeler H. Peckham and Rev. Dr. Charles Parkhurst will discuss the question of vice in this city at a public meeting to be held at Cooper Union, December 11th. This will be the first appearance of Dr. Parkhurst on the platform since the campaign of 1894, when the late William L. Strong was elected mayor. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the City Vigilance League, and will be its first move toward taking an active part in the mayoralty campaign of next Fall. Agents of the league have been collecting data which will be used by Dr. Parkhurst to show the prevelance of vice.

Acting Inspector James Campbell and Roundsman Conboy, of the Sheepshead bay precinct, made a descent on the hotel kept by William Schuester, borough of Brooklyn, and seized a quantity of racing cards at Benning's races. About seventy-five men who were in the building at the time made their escape and no arrests were made.

ROBERTS SEVERELY HURT.

The General Reported to Have Been Thrown from His Horse.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Evening Standard, in a special edition this evening, says: "Just as we are going to press the news has reached London that Lord Roberts has been thrown from his horse and received severe injuries."

The officials of the War Office say they are "not in a position to report anything in connection with the rumored accident to Lord Roberts." This utterance is interpreted here as giving indirect support to the Evening Standard's statement.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Lord Robert's accident occurred on Sunday last, while he was riding. His horse fell with him and he was shaken and bruised, but no limbs were broken. As he has since sent dispatches to the War Office, it is believed that he is performing his usual duties, especially as he has not mentioned the accident.

The Red Star Line steamer Friesland, Captain Nichols, which sailed from New York, November 7th for Southampton and Antwerp, passed Hurst Castle yesterday morning, in tow of tugs. The Friesland's rudder was disabled.

PUSHING OPERATIONS AGAINST FILIPINOS.

The Volunteers to Be Used for All They Are Worth in the Campaign Soon to Be Inaugurated.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MANILA, November 21.—General MacArthur was asked to-day whether the result of the Presidential election in the United States was in any way responsible for the orders to push operations against the Filipinos. He replied that the result of the election was merely coincident with other features of the situation. He added that the return of the soldiers and marines from China, with the recruits who had arrived recently, would increase the number of troops to 70,000 men. The enlargement of the forces, the ending of the rainy season, better roads, improved transportation and the desire to make the most efficient use of the volunteers before their term of service expires in June, are all contributory to a most active campaign.

Concerning the replacing of 35,000 volunteers, General MacArthur said he favors the establishment of a standing army of 75,000 men and authorizing the President to increase it to 100,000 men. The General also said he was enlarging the force in General Young's district to nearly 7,000 men, and that heavy reinforcements were being sent to General Hughes in the island of Panay.

The stranding of the coasting transport Indiana is causing a long delay in reaching a number of the remote coast stations in Southern Luzon, which have subsistence to November 1st only, and will have to depend largely on foraging until the Indiana is floated or a steamer is secured.

The customs warehouses are congested, which is delaying the commerce of Manila. General Smith, the collector of the port, at a meeting to-day of Manila importers, urged the necessity for the removal of the goods. The merchants talk of organizing a company for the erection of bonded warehouses.

The soldiers and marines who have returned from China are selling quantities of curios looted from the residences of the nobility or wealthy persons at Pekin and Tien Tsin. Many of them are valuable and ridiculously cheap, and a number of packages of such loot have been mailed to the United States for Christmas presents.

NEGROES IN A DUEL.

One Killed and the Other Badly Wounded. A Peace-maker Also Killed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBUS, GA., November 21.—Mitchell Taylor and Charles Comer, both negroes, fought a terrible duel with pistols near here this afternoon. The cause was $2.15 due on a watch by Comer to Taylor. Comer was killed and Taylor was badly wounded. During the fusilade Taylor's sister ran between the men as peace-maker, and was shot through the head by Taylor. She died in a few minutes.

ADVICES FROM CUBA.

Local Business Interests at Santiago Concerned With Reference to Action of the Cuba Company.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SANTIAGO, Nov. 21.—Before returning to Washington Secretary Root will meet Sir William VanHorne at Puerto Principe. Local business interests are intensely anxious with reference to the action of the Cuba Company, of which Sir William VanHorne is president. The company is now employing 2,000 men in the construction of a railroad, but without a franchise. Every one in this part of Cuba wants the line built, but the Foraker resolution forbids the granting of railroad concessions.

General Wood, referring to the matter to day, said: "The Cuba Company is doing an excellent but an unauthorized work in building the road. It has no franchise. I assume, however, that the Cuban republic of the future will legitimatize the company's action and grant it the privilege of doing business."

U. S. SIGNAL SERVICE.

Beacon Lights to Warn Sailors Out at Sea of Impending Storms.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The Weather Bureau experiments with signal lights for warning sailor men far out to sea of impending storms, have been concluded and American lamps fitted with pressed glass lenses have been decided on in preference to the French makes, which cost five times as much. A system of these beacon lamps will be established along the Atlantic coast and Igreat lakes, in addition to the signal service now in operation in many ports. The new method of signalling from the lofty steel towers will far surpass all that has heretofore been done. As each beacon light will be visible about twelve miles in any direction the lights from one hundred of them, which is the proposed number, would give a continuous series of warnings visible for nearly 2,500 miles along the seacoast.

President and Mrs. McKinley will go to Baltimore on Saturday to witness the marriage of Miss Lillian Gary, daughter of the former Postmaster General and Mrs. Gary, and Robert C. Taylor.
